FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

PUBLIC LEDGER OFFICE, MENTERS, TENES., July 15, 1875.

The money market to-day was quiet and inactive. There was little animation exhibited in money circles and nothing doing aside from the local checking and depositing. Currency continues in good supply, with collections fair and money comparatively easy. The discount market is steady and unchanged, firstclass paper ruling at 8@10 B cent. B annum: on the streets the rate is 2@3 ? cent. B month for short loans. Brokers are paying 1131@134 for gold, with light transactions. Exchange is in light supply, with a light demand at the following rates: On New York and Eastern points baying at par and selling at to premium; New Orleans, ic discount buying and selling at par. Police and fire scrip is in demand and appreciating. One or two brokers came into the market yesterday. The Mechanics' and Traders' Bank is offering 90c, and is unable to get all it wishes at that figure. The merchants are still receiving the scrip for goods at its face value. County and State warrants are quiet and unchanged. There is little movement in city warrants or bonds. Other securities of every description remain dull and nominally un-

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY. St. Louis, City of Chester... Vicksourg, Julia... St. Francis river, Occeols... ARRIVALS.

Steamer City of Chester, St. Louis, Minneola, Cincinnati. Illinois, Vicksburg. Robert Mitchell, Cincinnati.

Frank Forest, Ashport. Commonwealth, New Orleans. DEPARTURES.

Steamer Phil Allin, Friar's Point.
" Robert Mitchell, New Orleans. Commonwealth, St. Louis. BOATS IN PORT.

Illinois, Osceola, Frank Forest, Minneola, City of Chester. WEATHER AND BUSINESS.

Weather warm and sultry. The river here is still rising, and now stands 8 feet below the high water mark of 1867, and 6 feet 2 inches below the highest water of this season. At St. Louis the river fell 7 inches yesterday. At Cairo the river is 35 feet 10 inches, and rising fast. At Pittsburg the river is 3 feet 2 inches, and falling. At Cincinnati the river is 23 feet 3 inches, and rising. At Louisville the river is rising, with 10 feet in the canal. At Evansville the river is 21 feet 2 inches, and rising. Cumberland river is rising, with 17 feet 5 inches on the shoals. White river continues in fair navigable order. Arkansas river is down to its summer stage, and still falling, with 26 inches in the channel from Little Bock to the mouth. Business on the landing quiet, with little movement in freight.

MISCELLANEOUS. The present rise, which is unprecedented for this time of the year, will not overflow the banks of the lower Mississippi. The plantations adjacent to the river may become a little moist but we apprehend on serious results.

The planters along the bends having low lands tilled are busily engaged in building levees to protect there crops. The packets out last night had fair added here a few people. The Grand Tower for Memphis and Bee and barges for New Orleans left St. Louis yesterday.

John Howard, took passage on the Robt. Mitchell last evening bound for New Or-

The Frank Forest, Captain O. K. Joplin, came in last evening from the upper coast with a fair freight and passenger trip. She leaves to-morrow evening with s return trip for Ashport and all way hater, become smitten with a handsome landings on the upper coast. Wm Joplin has charge of the office.

Louisiana, was received in New Orleans she chanced to notice Mr. Hall's small yesterday. The first bale of new cotton feet, which were encased in expensive nearithe middle of August.

The Illinois, Captain Mark Cheek in command, came in last evening from Vicksburg with a big trip of people and fair freight list. She also done a big way business on the round trip. . The Illinois leaves the foot of Madison street to-morrow evening with a return trip for Vicksburg and the bends, paying strict attention to all way business and connecting with the Katie for New Orleans. Joe Spears, who is recognized for his courtesy and prompt attention to business, has charge of the office.

The City of Chester, Captain Zelgler, arrived last evening from St. Louis with a full cargo of grain and produce. She leaves the elevator this evening with a return trip for Cairo and St. Louis, connecting with the principal railroads for all points East and West and also with the Northern Line packets for St. Paul.

Billy Blenker presides at the desk. The light-draught and staunch steamer Osceola, in command of that ever popular officer, Captain A. Haycock, leaves this evening for all points on St. Francis river through to Wittsburg. She also pays strict attention to all way business in Council and Walnut bends. James H. Hall, a clever and accommodating clerk, has charge of the office. The Osceola will continue in the St. Francis river trade throughout the season. When the water gets extremely low she will lay up for a few weeks and have a full length cabin put on her, and her guards widened and put in complete running order for the fall season. Capt. Haycock, who is an efficient boatman and worthy gentleman, has planted himself with the Osceola in the St. Francis river trade with the determination of staying to accommodate the shipping and traveling public, and add new laurels to his already acquired popularity.

The Minneola, Captain Shunk, came in this morning from the Ohio river with 450 tons of freight. The principal items of her cargo were 1000 rolls of bagging and 50 tons of bulk meat. She leaves Saturday evening on a return trip for Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati. Tiff Strider rad Frank Shunk have charge of The Julia, Captain William Blake in command, is the Anchor Line packet leaving this evening for Vicksburg and the bends, carrying the mail and paying strict attention to all way business. She takes freight for all way points between here and Vicksburg. Mr. Gobel, an affable gentleman, does the honors of the office.

The Fort Gibson, Captain Ed Nowland in command, will arrive this evening from Arkansas river, and leaves to morrow evening with a return trip, carrying the mail and attending to all way busi-

The Quickstep, Captain Ed Postal in command, will arrive in port to-morrow moraing from White river, and leave on Saturday with a return trip for all points on White, Black and Little Red rivers. Ed Crowell is her prime minister.

The Belle of Shreveport goes on the docks at St. Louis.

The John A. Scudder is still loading at St. Louis for New Orleans.

One item of the Bee and barges' cargo is 30,000 bushels of wheat in bulk. The new Belle Lee will be launched at Metropolis on Tuesday next. We have received an invite to be present to see her go in the water. There are $12,000,000 bushels of coal at Pittsburg awaiting a rise to be towed South for a market. Dick Fowler, Captain of the Idlewild, a few days ago, caved in a negro's head, was tried for the offense before the United States Commissioner at Evansville, was found not guilty of having done any wrong, and dismissed from the court with only this admonition: "That next time, however, it would be advisable not to hit him quite so hard."

The Commonwealth passed up at noon to-day with 500 tons of freight.

The Geo. W. Cheek in her new dress looks as handsome as a pink. She will be ready for business in a few days.

The Minneola unloaded her cargo at the elevator. She will be found at the foot of Madison street this afternoon

The Thompson Dean has been sold to St. Louis parties who will run her in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade.

Jimmy McMeen, the receiving clerk at the elevator, had his shirt stolen from Captain E. R. Perry, of the steamer his room last evening, which had in it a costly set of stude and sleeve buttons. A liberal reward is offered for the above articles. JIM HALL'S PRETTY LITTLE FEET .-

On the last trip of the Oscola up St Francis river the clerk, James H. Hall, who is generally reputed to be a woman and intelligent lady of Arkansas, a passenger, who is very entertaining and A new bale of cotton, raised in fond of admiration. On one occasion last year was received at New Orleans patent leather congress gaiters. She paid the owner of the diminutive understandings quite a compliment, which made Jim blush to the roots of his hair. He soon forgot his hatred of the fair sex, and was observed soliloquizing that the fair enchantress was an angle of the seventh beaven. Jim took especial care of his highly complimented pedal extremities, and while the lady remained aboard reluctantly went ashore to perform his dcties for fear of soiling the beautiful "points" of his person so highly complimented.
